

APPLICATION FOR ADVICE ABOUT GUARDIANSHIP OR ADMINISTRATION

ABOUT VCAT

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (VCAT) can make orders to appoint an administrator or guardian for a person aged 18 years or over with a disability that affects their decision-making capacity.

We can also make orders to appoint an administrator to help manage the finances and property of a missing person.

Once an administrator or guardian is appointed, we can make more orders or give advice about matters and disputes arising from this guardianship, administration, supportive guardianship or supportive administration arrangement.

Depending on who you are, you may be able to seek:

- advice about what you can do in your role as a guardian, administrator, supportive guardian, or supportive administrator
- permission to enter into a transaction that may be a conflict of interest or permission to validate a transaction already entered into that may be a conflict of interest (if you are an administrator)
- advice on how to resolve a disagreement between guardians and/or administrators.
