

Information needed for VCAT's decision

Tell us what's important to the person the decision is being made about.

This information will help us make the best decision for their situation.

You can answer some or all of the questions.

Who this is about _____

VCAT Reference Number G _____

What is your relationship to this person? _____

What is important about their accommodation?

You may want to think about:

- Where do they like to live?
- Where would they like to live, if they move one day?

What is important to them for daily living?

You may want to think about:

- Do they need food delivered?
- Do they use a house cleaner?
- What other services do they use?

What is important about their relationships?

You may want to think about:

- Who are the most important people in their life?
- Do they have close friends or family who support them?
- Is there anyone they don't want to see?

What is important to them about your medical treatment?

You may want to think about:

- Is there someone who helps them get medical care?
- Where do they like to go for medical care?
- What do they think about prescription medicine?

What is important about their major assets and debts?

You may want to think about:

- Do they own a house or a car?
- Do they have debt to the bank or credit cards?
- Do they have any financial goals or plans?

What is important about their income and expenses?

You may want to think about:

- What they want to spend their money on?
- How much they like to save?

What is important for any court cases or legal problems?

You may want to think about:

- Do they have any court cases coming up?
- What are they about?
- What do they want to happen?
- Do they have other legal problems?

What else is important to them?

Some things you may want to think about:

- Do they have a pet that they care for?
- What activities or hobbies do they enjoy?
- Do they have any cultural traditions or practices?
- Do they take part in any religious or spiritual activities?
- Is there any information they don't want to be shared?

Acknowledgment

By completing this worksheet, I understand and acknowledge that:

to the best of my knowledge, all information provided in this worksheet is true and correct

it is an offence under section 136 of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998 to knowingly give false or misleading information to VCAT

Your full name:

Date: